

www.vermontfood.net

VGA hosts a consumer orientated web site, www.vermontfood.net that lists participating members and allows visitors to the site to utilize several search options to find markets. All members selling direct to consumers are offered a listing and link to this site as a member service at no additional cost (free Internet advertising for your business).

To be included on the web site is simple: just fill in the information below and return it to the VGA office at your earliest convenience. Information on the site that will be available to potential customers will include Store name, owner or manager, address, phone, short description, fax, email and web site if applicable. Customers will be able to search by type of store, store name, town or county. You do not have to have an email address or web site to be listed, however those with a web address will have a link on this site.
